Cancellations and Postponements of Grey Roots Programming and Events

For immediate release – March 12, 2020

Although the threat of COVID-19 (Novel Coronavirus) remains low in Grey County, we are taking proactive measures to limit the spread of viruses. It is important to maintain social distancing to minimize the potential for community transmission of this virus. Unfortunately, this means the cancellation or postponement of upcoming events.

Cancellation: March Break Back to Your Roots (March 14 to 21, 2020)

All programming related to the March Break: Back to Your Roots event, including the Zoo to You show, are cancelled. Full refunds will be automatically issued for online payments. If you paid in person at Grey Roots, please call visitor services at 519-376-3690.

Cancellation: March Break KidsCamp (March 16 to 20, 2020)

March Break KidsCamp: Farm to Fork is cancelled. Full refunds will be automatically issued for online payments. If you paid in person at Grey Roots, please call visitor services at 519-376-3690.

Postponed: Exhibit Openings

The March 13 grand opening event planned for the Voices of Grey and More Power to You exhibits will be rescheduled.

Regular Business Hours and Future Events

Grey Roots Museum and Archives remains open to the public. Future events, such as Spring into Moreston and the Spring Lecture Series, will be evaluated at a future date.
